FASHION

THE WILD STYLE

Our Creative Director Nancy teamed up with We Are The Wild Girls to shoot a number of fashion campaigns in Spain & Italy.

Shot by Amberly Valentine, Nancy collaborated with stylist Remy Bernhardt to create various looks for each brand and editorial.

To create this look on Taylor LaShae, Nancy started by applying the OUAI Wave Spray liberally all over to enhance the natural movement and texture of Taylor's hair. Then to add definition, a diffuser was used to dry and twist the locks into a cleaner finish, with a bandana tied around the head whilst slowly drying to diminish volume & calm flyaways.

A sprinkling of L'Oréal Super Dust was used throughout the day to absorb any humidity and keep this iconic bob looking fresh and full- (great to keep in your bag on holiday!)

Whilst away, Nancy had the pleasure of working on brands including Sancia The Label, Hush, Steele and Summer Fridays.

THE GENTLEMEN'S EDIT

Benjamin recently enjoyed a fantastic evening of London fashion creating the S/S 2019 hair for a feature in the latest edition of the luxury lifestyle magazine, The Gentlemen's Journal.

Hosted by The Berkeley Hotel and held within the sumptuous penthouse suit, the evening consisted of a fabulous 5 course dinner with a range of topics discussed including the key men's fashion and hair trends of 2019.

For the models, Benjamin kept the hair clean using various cutting techniques including scissor over comb and selective layering. To finish, the hair was left natural and polished with a slight sheen to complement the sharp tailoring supplied by Clements & Church.

Our thanks go out to The Berkeley Hotel, Clements & Church and all the models in attendance - Mathias Lefevre, George Spencer Churchill, Sam Harwood, Sam Way, Max Chilton, Harry Goodwins and Harry Jarman.

HAIR TIPS

PERFECT WEDDING-READY LOCKS

How to get the most out of your stylist and wedding hair trial

So, what's the secret to great wedding hair? Work it all out in rehearsal at your wedding hair trial. This crucial pre-wedding hair appointment will set the tone for your overall beauty look on the wedding day.

In order to make sure your locks are primed and coiled to perfection (and, most importantly, to your liking) when you walk down the aisle, there are certain measures you need to take before your hair trial to get the most out of the experience.

Read on to find out what to expect and how to prepare for your wedding hair trial to ensure you'll end up with the beautiful, long-lasting hairdo of your dreams.

PACE YOURSELF

Schedule your hair trial three months before the wedding. If you book it too early in the planning process, changing trends or chronic indecision could lead to second-guessing.

PLAN A NIGHT OUT

Have a GNO the evening of your trial to see what longevity the style has. Take some extra grips with you to just in case you need some extra support in a certain area.

BE SALON READY

Wash and dry your hair beforehand without using any hot styling tool, this will enable us to spend longer on styling your hair rather than the prep.

One of the most important wedding hair trial tips is to put your best face forward, since you'll be staring at yourself for a few self-critical hours. If you can, schedule your makeup trial to happen right before your salon visit.

AID THE STYLIST

So your stylist has the full picture bring visuals-anything from a photo of you in your dress to the flowers you'll be carrying. Be familiar with the style your choosing and don't go for something because it looked great on someone else. Tell us exactly what you're thinking and why. And just bring one trusted friend, too many voices creates chaos and confusion.

PERFECTING COLOUR

Want to add colour to enhance your look on the big day? Depending on what colour you'd like to achieve we advise planning 4-6 months in advance and building up your hair condition is key. Sit back, relax and let us do all the work.
